

Race Equality Awards 2024

In a world that's all about embracing differences and fairness, the Race Equality Awards are a well done for the amazing work done by groups and people who are changing our future for the better.

As we try to make things fair for everyone, we can use these sparks to inspire us all to build a world where everyone feels included and valued.

By nominating for these awards, you're not just looking for recognition for the person or organisation – it's your chance to highlight how dedicated they are to making sure everyone feels included and valued. Show the world the creative ways they have worked towards diversity and equality and let their commitment shine through.

While conversations around racial equality are at the forefront, these awards are not just relevant; they are a response to the urgent need for transformative action to address systemic issues and promote inclusivity.

There are two awards:

- Organisational Award
- Individual Award

Please read the criteria for each award and make your nomination below.
